Name of Student: _____

Teacher: _____ ROSE TODARO _____

What We Expect of the Student: Come to each lesson ready to have fun and learn to play music. The more and better you practice, the faster you will learn, but the important thing about the lessons is enjoying them, trying hard and learning while you're there. Every lesson is a success. Your lessons will be on _____(day of week) from ____ (am/pm) to ____ (am/pm) and will cost $_____.

What You Can Expect of Us: We care about the student as both a musician and a person. Lessons will focus on the student's individual needs, abilities and interests. We make learning music fun by building on students' strengths in a supportive, enthusiastic environment. We want you to experience the joy of making music.

Missed Lessons: If you need to change a lesson time, give us forty-eight (48) hours advance notice, and we'll try to arrange an alternate time. If we need to change a lesson time, we'll do the same. We'll be flexible in the case of illness. Changes should be rare. If you miss a lesson for reasons beyond your control and you cannot give us advance notice, we will schedule an alternate time at our discretion. Please be mindful of your lesson time, since forgotten lessons or "no-shows" cannot be rescheduled or refunded. If we're running a little late for a lesson, we'll make sure you get a full lesson regardless; if you're running a little late, it may or may not be possible to extend your lesson time, as another student may be scheduled right after you.

What We Expect of the Parent: We expect you to support your child's musical interest and provide a quiet space for practicing at home, a music stand, a metronome and encouragement. If you have technical concerns about what you hear in your child's practicing, please address them to the teacher and not to your child. Students should be encouraged to practice but never nagged or belittled.

Email is the best way to contact us (we check it daily): roseteachviolin@gmail.com. If you don't have email, call our studio number at the top of this page.

I have read the above and agree with it.
